

Half-Term Holiday Activities at the Museum of St Albans

SUPER SIXTIES

James and the Giant Peach

Mon 13th February (10.30am - 12.30pm)

Join us for a morning of Roald Dahl fun as we celebrate the 50th birthday of this amazing story. Make some brilliant James and the Giant Peach souvenirs to take away with you.

Suitable for 6 - 13 year olds

Dr Who

Tues 14th February (10.30am - 12.30pm)

This fantastic programme was watched for the first time in 1964. Join us for a morning of Dr Who activities including making your own Dalek.

Suitable for 8 - 13 year olds

Man on the Moon

Wed 15th February (10.30am - 12.30pm)

As the 1960s drew to an end America won the race to put the first man on the moon - or did they? Come along and find out about the 1969 moon landing and make an astronaut's back pack.

Suitable for 8 - 13 year olds

AND GROOVY GREEKS

Incredible Icarus

Thurs 16th February (2pm - 4pm)

Hear the thrilling story of Icarus and his escape from the labyrinth. You can then create an embellished picture of this amazing hero and make your own labyrinth game.

Suitable for 6 - 13 year olds. Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

How To Book

Cost £5.00 (£4.50 for young friends)

All sessions should be booked and paid for in advance either in person at the Museum of St Albans or by phone 01727 819340.

Please wear old clothes as the sessions can get rather messy!
